

The Vienna Circle and Beyond: A Workshop Inspired by the Work of Thomas Uebel

When: May 24th 2023
Where: Simon Building, Room 4.38
University of Manchester, UK

To Register: Please email
joseph.bentley@manchester.ac.uk

9-9.30
Arrival/Coffee

9.30-9.45
Graham Stevens (University of Manchester)

Introduction

9.50 – 11.05
André Carus (Munich Center for Mathematical Philosophy)

Trade-Offs in Conceptual Engineering:
The current relevance of the Neurath-Carnap project
of a scientific vernacular

11.10 – 12.25
Joseph Bentley (University of Manchester)

Positivist or Post-Positivist Philosophy of Science?
Kuhn and the Left-Vienna

Lunch

1.40– 2.55
John O'Neill (University of Manchester)

Neurath, rationality and socialist planning

Coffee

3 – 4.15
Friedrich Stadler (University of Vienna)

On the Pluralistic Profile of Logical Empiricism:
The Vienna Circle with a Focus on Social Sciences

4.45 - 6
Thomas Uebel (University of Manchester)

The Unaccountability of Simples:
Neurath on the Metaphysics of the Tractatus.